INSTRUCTIONS

Student is to read for twenty – thirty minutes each day. A vocabulary list should be in the front of the journal for words and definitions not known. Upon reading the book completely, each student is to write an essay about the story. The student is then to create an illustration that could be used to interest others in reading the story. The journal is to be brought to the Shule on the first day (August 31, 2006). Credit will be given for a completed journal ONLY.
